

City of Cheyenne To Hold Town Hall Meeting On 2018 Code Adoption

CHEYENNE – The City of Cheyenne Building Safety Department in conjunction with Cheyenne Fire Rescue will host a town hall meeting to kick-off the 2018 code adoptions proceedings.

The town hall meeting will be start at Noon on Tuesday, September 25 in the Community Room at the Cheyenne Public Safety Center, 415 W. 18th St.

Builders, designers, and anyone interested in learning about changes in the building codes are encouraged to attend. There will be a presentation and question/answer session to discuss any changes. This is an opportunity to voice any comments or concerns regarding any new changes in the building and fire codes, as well as proposed changes to current code amendments adopted by the City for the 2015 codes.

This information will also be available on the City's website (www.cheyennecity.org) on the main page by clicking on "2018 Code Adoptions." This link will have all the new 2018 Codes for viewing and the updates for significant changes prepared by the International Code Council.

Please call the building department at 307-637-6265 if you plan to attend and how many people will attend.

"Your voice is important, and we look forward to having some good discussions," said Blas Hernandez, Chief Building Official for the City of Cheyenne.
